

RECEPTION NEWSLETTER 10.12.18

The children have been brilliant last week despite the changes in routine. We are so proud of them as they have been superb in all the Nativity rehearsals. You are in for a real treat watching the performances on Wednesday and Thursday. Occasionally some children may get a little upset during the performances when they see their grown-up in the audience. To reassure them please give them a lovely smile and a member of staff will be there to support them. I know it's tempting to get out of your seat to comfort them but this can be more upsetting and unsettle other children too. Thanks for your understanding. Additionally, just a polite reminder to please leave any reserved seats free for children and staff. Thank you! Additionally, our tricky word check and readers might be on different days due to the Nativity this week.

This week we are getting better at:

- Helping each other
- Writing a letter to Santa
- Ordering numbers

Our Circle time focus this week is...

Helping each other

This might be how we work together as a school or in the community. What helpful things could you do?

Home learning diaries:

In phonics this week we will be learning the sounds: ow, oi, ear, air, ure, er

We know it's a really busy time in school with lots of changes to routines meaning there will be lots of very tired children. Therefore, please just continue with daily reading anything extra is great but not essential.

Letter, dear, name, address, from, order, next, more/less, missing number

After half term our class newsletter will be emailed to you to save paper. If you ever need another copy then please check our class page on the Buglawton website. Thank you.

Reception Dates for your diaries...

Wednesday/Thursday 12th/13th December (am) - KS1 Nativity
